Forecast For The United Kingdom
Issued by Met Office Exeter
at 0400 on Monday 30 Aug 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Dry for most, but often cloudy.

Today:
A good deal of cloud through today, although breaking in parts of the south and west to allow some sunshine. A little light rain or drizzle in some eastern parts, particularly in the morning.

Tonight:
Mostly cloudy with some drizzle in parts of the east overnight, whilst clear spells are possible in the west with a few mist or fog patches developing.

Tuesday:
Again, rather cloudy with some drizzly showers in central and eastern parts at first, these dying out with the cloud breaking to give sunny intervals, best in the west.

Outlook for Wednesday to Friday:
Generally dry, rather cloudy and cool. Some warm sunny spells in places, the best of these across central and western Scotland. A few light showers for some coasts and hills.
